And now a few words from me:

Hi there! My name is Bentley and I'm a super-friendly little fellow with a big personality and an even bigger love for cuddles! I'm a professional lap warmer, and frankly, I'm not fussy about whose lap it is. If you're sitting down, I'll happily make myself comfortable! I also love giving kisses, so be prepared for plenty of affection. I absolutely LOVE my walks! When it's time to head outside, I'm the first one at the door, ready for our next adventure. Now, I will admit that I've been a bit of a picky eater, but I've started to come around. What I'm really looking for is a loving, patient home with plenty of walks, cuddles, and a comfortable lap in which to curl up. In return, I promise lots of kisses, companionship, and all the Dachshund charm you can handle!

And now a few words from my foster family:

It took Bentley a little while to settle into our home, but now he is doing wonderfully and getting along nicely with the two resident Dachshunds. He is still learning his manners when meeting other dogs on leash. Sometimes he gets a little barky and acts tougher than he really is. We are working on that. Car rides aren't his favourite thing just yet, but he is getting better with practice. He's always happy for any adventure! Bentley is a lovely little dog with the sweetest soul. He's looking for a family who will appreciate all the love, companionship, and happiness he has to offer. His adoptive family will be lucky to have him!
