And now a few words from me:

We are a happily bonded pair and have spent our whole lives together. We love to be together, but we also do things separately too. Me, Stanley, I'm a social butterfly and love to be in the know of what's going on. I'm not a high-energy guy, love a good nap, enjoy cruising around outside, and really like car rides. For me, Prunelle or Pru, I'm a bit different than Stanley: I take time to warm up to new people, I tend to like the woman of the house first and then take time to warm up to any men in the home. When first meeting people I run and hide and then stick close to Stanley for security; he helps me adjust. I also enjoy car rides and am happy to go on outings with my people. And I'm a bit of a sleuth... I like sniffing around and inspecting new places. Do we sound like the perfect twosome for you? We're double the fun, so let's meet!

And now a few words from my foster family:

Stan and Pru are sweet souls and a great pair. Stan is the more confident of the two of them; he easily greets new people and enjoys being around everyone. Pru takes some time to warm up to new people; she will just hide or move away but warms up to people once she gains confidence. They sleep together and eat together. They are happy dogs that just like to be with people. They are not high energy and love a good nap. Stan is the snuggler, and Pru will lie down in the same area (usually close to her chosen "person").

MANDATORY MEET AND GREET IN CLAYTON, ONTARIO.
